[162] THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST B

FIRST READING

This is the blood of the covenant that the Lord has made with you.

A reading from the book of Exodus

24:3-8

Moses told the people all of the Lord's commands and laws.

The people answered,

"We will do everything the Lord has commanded!"

Then Moses wrote down all that the Lord had said.

The next morning Moses got up early and built an altar at the foot of the mountain.

he took a large stone for each of the twelve tribes of Israel and placed the stones there.

Then he sent some young men to burn offerings and sacrifice bulls as special offerings to the Lord.

Moses put half of the blood from the animals into some bowls and sprinkled the other half on the altar.

Moses read aloud from the book of the Lord's promises,

and the people shouted,

"We will obey the Lord!

We will do everything he has commanded."

Then Moses took the blood that was in the bowls.

He sprinkled it on the people and told them,

"This blood shows that the Lord will keep all of his promises to you."

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

147:12 and 14, 19-20

R. (13) I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord.

or

R. Alleluia.

What must I give you, Lord,

For being so good to me?
I will pour out an offering
of wine to you,
and I will pray in your name
because you have saved me.

R. I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord.
or
R. Alleluia.

I will offer you a sacrifice
to show how grateful I am,
and I will pray.
I will keep my promise to you
when your people
gather at your temple in Jerusalem.

R. I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord.
or
R. Alleluia.

ALLELUIA

John 6:51

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord;
whoever eats this bread will live forever.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL

This is my body. This is my blood.

† A reading from the holy gospel according to Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

It was the first day of the Feast of Thin Bread, and the Passover lambs were being killed.
Jesus' disciples asked him,
"Where do you want us to prepare the Passover meal?"

Jesus said to two of the disciples,
“Go into the city,
 where you will meet a man carrying a jar of water.
Follow him, and when he goes into a house,
 say to the owner,
“Our teacher wants to know if you have a room
 where he can eat the Passover meal with his disciples.”
The owner will take you upstairs and show you a large room furnished and ready for you to use.
Prepare the meal there.”

The two disciples went into the city
 and found everything just as Jesus had told them.
So they prepared the Passover meal.

During the meal Jesus took some bread in his hands.
He blessed the bread and broke it.
Then he gave it to his disciples and said,
“Take this. It is my body.”

Jesus picked up a cup of wine and gave thanks to God.
He then gave it to his disciples and said,
“Drink it!”
So they all drank some.

Then he said,
“This is my blood,
 which is poured out for many people,
 and with it God makes his agreement.
From now on I will not drink any wine,
 until I drink new wine in God’s kingdom.”

Then they sang a hymn and went out to the Mount of Olives.

The gospel of the Lord.

As a group COVENANT, promise to pray for each other, especially when you come to church, during the coming weeks. Have each child print their name on the scroll. Then share a piece of bread and some grape juice.

To conclude the session: Recite the Our Father together.
